The Industrial Association is fortunate to have Carolyn Clevenger, Principal Planner at the Metropolitan Transportation Commission (MTC) as our April Forum Speaker.

Some Topics Of Discussion Will Be: Transportation long range, sustainability, goods movement.

Carolyn Clevenger is a Principal Planner at the Metropolitan Transportation Commission (MTC). Carolyn oversees major regional transportation planning initiatives, including development of the long- range transportation plan and goods movement planning. She also oversees the region's climate initiatives, air quality work and sea level rise planning. She was the project manager of the Transit Sustainability Project (TSP), which was a regional initiative that included analysis of the existing transit system focused on service design and delivery, financial viability, and decision-making structures. Carolyn has also managed goods movement initiatives at MTC, and led the development of the Northern California program for the $2.5 billion Trade Corridor Improvement Fund. Prior to MTC, Carolyn was the Chief of Staff of the New York City Economic Development Corporation, where she worked on infrastructure and economic development projects for New York City.
