The Industrial Association is fortunate to have David Cooke, Partner at Allen
Matkins law firm, as our January 21, 2016 Forum Speaker.

David Cooke is a partner in the environmental practice of the Allen Matkins law firm in San Francisco. His practice is concentrated on regulatory counseling, transactions and litigation involving the protection, cleanup, and disposition of contaminated properties; regulatory, permitting and enforcement issues and actions under the Clean Water Act, Clean Air Act, and related state laws; guidance of clients through the Superfund administrative process and CERCLA cost recovery and contribution litigation; land use and litigation matters under CEQA and NEPA; counseling and regulatory compliance problems under RCRA and the California Hazardous Waste Control Law; and environmental insurance and policyholder-side environmental insurance coverage dispute resolution. David's environmental litigation practice encompasses all phases of litigation, through trial and appeal. He received his law degree in 1980 from the University of Virginia and is recognized for his expertise in environmental law by several legal ratings organizations including Chambers USA, Best Lawyers, and others.
