Shell Clubhouse
1635 Pacheco Blvd.
Martinez, CA 94553
11:30 A.M to 1:30 P.M.

The Industrial Association is fortunate to have David Cooke as our January Forum Speaker. Mr. Cooke is an environmental lawyer in the San Francisco office of the law firm Allen Matkins. His practice is focused almost exclusively on environmental matters, including regulatory compliance counseling and permitting, transactional work, litigation at both the trial and appellate level, and enforcement defense. Mr. Cooke has represented public agencies such as the Metropolitan Transportation Commission in Clean Air Act litigation regarding transportation planning and air quality, and the Imperial Irrigation District in litigation over the largest agricultural-to-urban water transfer in United States history. Mr. Cooke is a 1980 graduate of the University of Virginia School of Law, and has been a member of the IACCC for three years.
