The Industrial Association is fortunate to have Barbara Lee, Director of the California Department of Toxic Substances Control as our July Forum Speaker.

Barbara A. Lee was appointed Director of the California Department of Toxic Substances Control on Oct. 31, 2014 by Gov. Edmund G. Brown, Jr. Lee previously served as Air Pollution Control Officer at the Northern Sonoma County Air Pollution Control District since 1996, where she was Supervising Air Quality Engineer from 1994 to 1996. She served as an Air Quality Engineer at the Bay Area Air Quality Management District from 1990 to 1994. Lee is co-chair of the National Association of Clean Air Agencies Monitoring Committee and has been a member of the California Air Pollution Control Officers Association Board since 1995, where she served as President in 2000, 2005 and 2008. She served as co-chair of the California Environmental Protection Agency Environmental Justice Advisory Committee from 2005 to 2007, where she was a member from 2001 to 2007. Lee has a Bachelor of Science in Chemical Engineering from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and has done graduate work in medical technology, biology and neuroscience.
