The Industrial Association is fortunate to have Gary Lucks JD, CPEA
as our October Forum Speaker.

Some Topics of Discussion Will Be:

Mr. Lucks will be discussing recent environmental regulatory developments in California and nationally. Mr. Lucks will highlight legislative, regulatory, and judicial changes in the law impacting the regulated community. The presentation will cover key developments ranging from the recent amendments to the Toxic Substances Control Act to climate change, hazardous materials, and water quality.

Mr. Gary Lucks JD, CPEA is a senior environmental attorney with deep expertise in environmental, health, and safety (EHS) law, legislative affairs, and sustainability strategy and implementation. He has over 30 years of experience advising Fortune 500 clients in clean tech, high tech, power, aerospace, biopharma and many other industry sectors. He is a licensed attorney, a scientist, and a Certified Professional Environmental Auditor (CPEA) who has completed or overseen more than 400 major EHS compliance audits across the country. He advises clients on maintaining business continuity and license to operate while managing EHS risks. He also specializes in sustainability strategy, implementation and reporting, environmental compliance counseling, environmental auditing, environmental management systems (EMS), training, and permitting. Mr. Lucks has published extensively on environmental law, legislation, and policy. He co-wrote a book on environmental law (California Environmental Law and Policy: A Practical Guide) which is used in law schools, colleges, by practitioners, and which has been cited in legal opinions). He also wrote the Environmental Auditing Chapter in the California Environmental Law and Land Use Treatise. He serves on the California State Bar Environmental Law Section's Executive Committee and serves as the co-chair of the West Coast Institute of Internal Auditors. Mr. Lucks also serves on the California State Bar Environmental Legislation Committee. He recently completed a four-year term as an Advisor to the Bay Area Air Quality Management District.
